

NEW PROFESSIONAL THEATRE: SOLID STEPS

New Professional Theatre is taking solid steps towards becoming an institution. We are making necessary collaborations with major institutions that will insure we can continue our fine work for years and years to come.

Museum for African Art

The Museum for African Art has moved into a new location on 110th Street and 5th Ave. The museum will be the last one built on historic Museum Row. Theatrical programming will be an integral part of the museum; New Professional Theatre will be in residency! The new theatre will open in November; we will make several announcements very soon.

Queens Theatre In The Park (Photo by Dominick Totino)

Another development is collaboration with the Queens Theatre in the Park. Located in Flushing Meadows Park (Home of the 1964 World's Fair) the theatre recently completed a major renovation. It is absolutely beautiful! We hope to co-produce our 2005 Writers Festival Winner Cheryl Davis' play BARNSTORMER in May 2012. We will run for two weeks in Queens and then move for one week to our theatre home THE DUKE ON 42ND ST.

This is all very exciting news and we could not have done it without you. Please continue to

This is all very exciting news and we could not have done it without you. Please continue to support New Professional Theatre. We owe it to future generations, our culture is important and valued.

Donate

This e-mail was sent from New Professional Theatre
Immediate removal
with PatronMail®
SecureUnsubscribe.

To forward this e-mail to a friend or colleague, use this link.

To change your e-mail address or update preferences, use this link.